

Donna Mills

Qualifications Summary

Seasoned professional with experience in leadership positions in healthcare, finance, and operating management. In-depth experience streamlining operations, managing costs to improve efficiencies of scale and leading high performing teams to success. Ability to persuade and lead at all levels of an organization. Proven track record recommending and executing business and financial solutions and initiatives, ultimately contributing to an organization's financial results. Committed to healthcare transformation.

Professional History

Valtas Group	Consultant	2023 – Present
Central Oregon Health Council	Non-Profit Executive Director	2015 – 2022
Integrated Community Health Partners	Executive Director	2011 – 2015
Mills Consulting, LLC	Consultant	2010 – 2011
Pueblo Cardiology Associates	Practice Administrator	2007 – 2010
Foundation Health/Benesight/Fiserv Inc	CFO	2000 – 2007
Fabrica International (Manufacturing)	Controller	1981 – 2001

Accomplishments

- Negotiated global budget amongst major healthcare providers: hospital, primary care, dental, and Behavioral Health.
- Consolidated multiple finance departments into one cohesive finance center, sourcing and implementing uniform financial software with significant savings.
- Passed with high marks in all rigorous audits and compliance reviews over multiple disciplines.
- Provided leadership and critical input for reorganization of entity, including strategies and specific steps to attain mission, vision, and values.
- Reduced overall turnover and retained an entire department (30 staff) during merger and subsequent acquisition reflecting strong team loyalty and overall leadership capabilities.
- On multiple occasions, managed financial oversight while company closed and/or merged with little to no system failures.
- Assembled a community collaboration, with more than 250 volunteers, both community representation and organizational representation for disruptive innovation.
- Led the distribution of more than $22 million dollars into the Central Oregon community.
- Created and maintained solid relationship and credibility with all governmental and local authorities (Federal and State, and Public Health).

Licenses / Education

- Bachelor of Science, Accounting & Diploma of Accountancy, Strayer University, Washington DC
- Management Certification Coursework, University of California, Irvine, CA
- Additional Continuing Education Coursework included: Situational Leadership, Financial Reporting, Revenue Recognition, Sarbanes-Oxley Internal Controls, Multiple courses with American College of Healthcare Executives, Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Justice.